

Traditional Assisted Living

Traditional Assisted Living at Edgehill is an intimate neighborhood of ten apartments located on the botanical level. Two of the ten apartments feature two bedrooms and two full bathrooms allowing them to be shared.

Residents on Traditional Assisted Living enjoy an enhanced level of care including an assigned nurse and resident care associate for clinical needs and assistance. In addition, fine dining and activities may be enjoyed directly in the neighborhood or residents can attend them alongside their independent living neighbors.